

Thought for the week

The reason birds can fly and we can't is simply because they have perfect faith, for to have faith is to have wings."

— J.M. Barrie, The Little White Bird

Sainsburys Active Kids 2017

Sainsburys Active Kids scheme is now underway. Please can you collect as many vouchers as you and your friends and family can. There will be a collection box in the school office.

Andy Seed – Hatman

We have received the following email from Andy Seed which we wanted to share with you all;

'Hello everyone, each month I'm posting a 10-min video recommending four good books for ages 7-11. The books will be a mixture of fiction, non-fiction and poetry by a wide range of authors. The purpose of the vlog is very simple: to promote reading for pleasure! I hope you can find time to have a look Hatman, this is the link;

We hope you enjoy having a look at this vlog with your children.

In the last week

Class One had their opening morning in which they did various chinese themed activities and showed their grown ups how to use numicon. They did a Chinese dance using the dragon head in their dance lesson.

Class Two found out about insulators and conductors and wrote non-chronological reports about Mayans.

Class Three studied fractions, areas and perimeters in maths. In literacy they looked at journalistic writing in Newspapers.

Milk

If your child currently receives milk in school this will continue next term unless you tell us you no longer want this to happen. If you have to pay for this the balance will be added to your Parentpay account this Friday. Please ensure this is paid before the start of next half term to enable us to correctly advise the dairy on our numbers. Many thanks.

Requests from the children

As part of their weekly PSHCE lessons the children are looking at how they can improve the school. As a result of this the children are asking for donations of following items if anyone could help at all that would be fantastic!

- Old shelves, bulbs and seeds, foam, covers
