

Thought of the week

"I think, with never-ending gratitude, that the young women of today do not and can never know at what price their right to free speech and to speak at all in public has been earned."
-Lucy Stone

Minster Trip – Class 3

On Thursday last week we went to York Minster. On the tour we learnt that the tower was supposed to be 120 meters tall but ended up 60 meters tall as it was too unstable. We also learnt about the fires in the Minster and visited all the various rooms.

Mr Little was our tour guide and he took us to the learning Centre. I dressed up as a Dean, Beck dressed as a Vicar and Jasmine dressed as the Archbishop. We also learned about Baptisms.

9th February - Help required

Thank you to everyone who has offered help so far, we really do appreciate it. We are awaiting final details on delivery of the temporary classroom, which should hopefully come this week, and then we will be in a position to make plans and let you all know, but we are very grateful for the offers so far.

Joke Box – thank you to everyone who has submitted jokes.

Please can we ask for you to keep them coming, it would be lovely if every child could submit at least one joke each to be included in the FOCAS joke book. Just write them on a piece of paper and pop them in the box in the school office please.

Castle Museum Trip

Please see attached consent letter for our trip to the Castle Museum next week. You will see that the transport for this trip is being funded by FOCAS, which we are very grateful for.

Norton College Holiday clubs are attached. Details can be found at spinning@nortoncollege.net

Children's University – Please keep completing your passbooks; we will arrange another morning next week to bring them in and get them stamped up to date with Mrs Booth.

Young Voices

We went to Young Voices in Sheffield on 19th January with 5303 other people. We had a long rehearsal and then had our tea. Suddenly the lights went out and everyone turned their torches on and it looked beautiful. We sang for our parents and the audience until 9pm. The concert was loud but very delightful. My favourite song was the pop medley.
