

"Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness."
Lamentations 3:22-23

Parking – 6th December

Just to give you advance notice that there will be a funeral reception taking place at the Village Hall on 6th December and so the carpark will be busier than usual. Please can we ask you to respect the local residents and be mindful of not blocking driveways or damaging soft verges if you need to park on the roadside on this day.
